CAS SS.1.1.b — Analyze primary and secondary historical sources to develop historical thinking skills.	3-5	Activities incorporate period-accurate maps, artifacts, and primary source imagery. Students interpret/respond to evidence from the period being studied.
CAS SS.1.2.a — Analyze the interconnected nature of world history and the contributions of various civilizations.	6-8	Culture-specific modules (ancient Egypt, feudal Japan, Indigenous Americas, etc.) help middle school students engage with civilizational contributions and cross-cultural connections.

CAS SS.1.3 (Inquiry strand) — Gather, analyze, and evaluate information using disciplinary inquiry practices.	K-12	Crafts are structured inquiry in action – students apply historical content by creating a period-authentic artifact, internalizing process and knowledge through making.
